

Cares is an initiative of
Business in the Community

Terms and conditions

Although York Cares makes every effort to ensure the safety of employees while participating in volunteering activities, we are required to ensure that volunteers are aware of their rights and responsibilities.

Disclaimer

York Cares shall endeavour to do all it can to ensure the safety of volunteers working on York Cares projects, however, York Cares does not accept any responsibility for any loss of property, personal injury or loss of life of any volunteer whilst participating in any York Cares project.

For the avoidance of doubt, none of these clauses are seeking to limit or exclude York Cares liability for personal injury or death caused by their negligence.

Volunteers Liability

I understand that I am volunteering for this activity at my own risk, and that I shall be solely responsible for my own property and personal safety when working on any activity for York Cares.

Third Party Liability

Neither my personal representatives nor I shall bring any claim against York Cares if it is possible to bring a claim for that loss, damage, personal injury or death against any other party (including but not limited to other volunteers, landlords, property owners and local authorities).

York Cares Discretion

York Cares retains the right in their sole discretion to consider any claim for loss and damage that is limited in value to £50.

Severance

I understand the full implications of this disclaimer however, should any clause of this disclaimer be found to be void, that clause shall be severed from this disclaimer and the remaining clauses shall remain valid and enforceable.