Pub Tour: Thursday 4 July, 4pm - 6pm

York Cares is delighted to be working with Ben Thorpe to deliver a guided walking tour of York pubs, past and present. Ben delivers the York on a Fork walking tour of the city as well as having a keen interest in the unique contribution pubs make to the social fabric of our city. He's also a professional food awards judge and deeply involved with York Food & Drink Festival.

Starting at The Golden Ball, the group will walk a couple of miles through the city to finish at the historic Phoenix Inn with a couple of refreshment stops on the way and with the opportunity to have a go at an historic pub game to finish. On the way you'll hear about historic York figures such as Margaret Clitherow, Guy Fawkes and Dick Turpin as well as some lesser known rogues associated with the establishments you'll be passing. Limited places available. Booking required.
